

Story starter!

They had been in the barn for ages. Plotting.

Outfits ready, equipment set, plan made, they were almost ready to leave.

What they were attempting had never been done before, to their knowledge, but that didn't deter them.

They knew what they wanted, and were determined to get it.

Question time!

- ▶ What is it that you think they wanted?
- ▶ What do you think is in the barrels?
- ▶ Which mouse is in charge? Explain your answer.
- ▶ If the mice could talk, what would they be saying?

Perfect picture!

Can you draw a picture of one of the mice doing something extraordinary? Try to draw something that you know an ordinary mouse couldn't do.

Sentence challenge!

Can you write a sentence that uses an apostrophe for omission?

E.g. cannot = can't I have = I've he will= he'll she is= she's we have= we've will not = won't

He can not see anything.

I have never been so excited!

He will never be the leader.

She was always complaining.

We will not give you a piece of cheese!

We have never seen a mouse wearing clothes before.

Sick sentences!

These sentences are 'sick' and need help to get better. Can you help?

- ▶ The mouse had fur and eyes.
- ▶ He held the trousers with his fingers.
