

Story starter!

The witch hadn't slept for three nights. The first night she'd spent deep in thought, plotting. The second she'd spent stooped over her cauldron, muttering evil incantations as she prepared the foul and odorous brew. On the third night, the deed had been done. Without a glimmer of remorse, she took flight once again, glancing back over her shoulder at the wreckage she'd left behind. A merciless cackle escaped her chapped lips...

Image by: Caras Ionut

Question time!

- ▶ Where does the witch live?
- ▶ What did she brew inside her cauldron?
- ▶ What ingredients might she have used?
- ▶ What evil deed did she carry out on the third night?
- ▶ Does the witch regret what she'd done?
- ▶ What powers do you think the witch possesses?

Image by: Caras Ionut

Sentence challenge!

Can you place the missing bracket in the sentence below?

The witch who was a very steady flyer) soared through the air at great speed.

Can you write a sentence containing brackets?

Image by: Caras Ionut

Sick sentences!

These sentences are 'sick' and need help to get better. Can you help?

- ▶ The witch went through the air.
- ▶ She held onto the broom.
- ▶ Her skin was green.

Perfect picture!

Can you draw a picture of a witch's house?

